Are you looking for a relatively undiscovered new dive destination for your next holiday?

The islands of Samoa are an unspoilt, sleepy tropical paradise surrounded by a coral reef system rich in marine life. Samoa is only a 5-6 hour direct flight from Sydney or Brisbane.

Aggie Grey's Lagoon Beach Resort & Spa is a full service facility resort located only a short drive from the airport. The diving and watersports activities centre is on the resort's grounds. From here you can begin your explorations of the surrounding waters.
